White Pupils Boycott School In Delaware

10 Negroes Show Up For First Time In Dispute On Segregation

MILFORD, Del. (AP)—Ten Negro pupils reported for classes at Milford High School today, but an undetermined number of white students stayed home in a dispute over an end to segregation.

Dr. George R. Miller, state education commissioner, said he had no immediate idea how many of the 1,500 pupils registered at the combination high-and-elementary school reported for classes but said "a normal schedule was being carried out."

The previously all-white school and the town's only other school, which houses 237 elementary grade Negro students, had been closed a week. The shutdown occurred when a group of Milford's 5,700 residents protested the attendance of 11 Negroes.

The school district's 14 buses operated without incident, but they carried less than half their normal daily load. Each bus usually brings about 35 pupils to school, but today the biggest load was 14 students, while three buses had no passengers at all.

MANY PARENTS brought their children in the family auto. Eight Negroes arrived this way, the other two by bus.

Meantime, a pro-segregation organization official, forecast a court battle if integration of the Negroes is continued.

Joseph M. Deanes of Hartley, Del., vice president of the National Assn. for the Advancement of White People, said a court injunction would be sought to keep the Negroes (Six boys and five girls) from attending classes with white pupils.

Deanes' statement came shortly before the scheduled reopening of the city's two schools.

There was an increasing number of reports that parents of white pupils will not send their children to the school, either because they fear violence might occur or because they were opposed to integrating their sons and daughters with Negro pupils.

This maneuver was given further impetus yesterday at a mass meeting of some 3,000 persons in this race-conscious town.

Bryant Bowles, president of the NAACP, told the meeting: "You certainly have the right to protect your child by keeping it at home if you are afraid there is going to be violence stirred up by the opposition. I would bar the door before it leaves and not after."

Accidents Kill 24

COLUMBUS (AP)—Seventeen persons were killed in Ohio traffic accidents last weekend. A total of 24 accidental deaths were reported, including two drownings and an airplane crash fatality.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Osborne are going to have some unusual experiences to talk about when they get back to their homes here after their tour of Europe. But, one of the "extras" they had not counted on, something that was not on the tour itinerary, undoubtedly will be one of their most exciting adventures.

A note from Mrs. Osborne, written on the stationery of the Waldorf Hotel in London, said "we had a rough voyage over on the Empress of Scotland," but there was ample compensation for that—they met the Earl and Countess of Elgin and they invited Mr. and Mrs. Osborne to have tea with them at their castle in Scotland.

She said: "everyone here thinks that was a great honor... we had a nice stay in Scotland."

From Scotland, they (presumably the touring party) went to England and where they visited Oxford University and Shakespeare's birthplace and while at Windsor Castle saw the famous ceremony of the "changing of the guard."

They were preparing to go to Paris from London, where the note was written by Mrs. Osborne.

Several years ago, the Osbornes ran the duck pin bowling alleys on South Main Street in the room now occupied by the Yeoman Radio and television store.

1500 Persons Die In Japan Typhoon

TOKYO (AP)—An estimated 1,500 persons perished in a howling typhoon which struck northern Japan last night, including nearly 1,000 who died when a huge sea-going ferryboat capsized.

The bodies of 17 Americans have been recovered so far and perhaps 50 more are missing.

Authorities said 500 bodies have been found and estimated that 500 will be recovered from the capsized ferry.

The search for survivors has ended and rescue squads are lining up bodies of the dead on rough straw mats in an old seaman's center.

The great storm, generating winds up to 110 miles an hour, apparently had whirled harmlessly into the Japan Sea when suddenly it curled back and struck the northern island of Hokkaido almost without warning.

THE RESULT was Japan's greatest maritime disaster.

Giant waves in Tsugaru Straits sank five big ferries, four of which carried no passengers, and hundreds of small craft.

A fire virtually wiped out Iwanai, a city of 23,000 on Hokkaido's west coast, and police reported disastrous landslides and floods throughout Hokkaido.

Communications and power lines were wrecked. Rail lines and highways were blocked.

The most terrible disaster occurred in Hakodate harbor, where the big ocean ferry Toya Maru, carrying 1,252 passengers and crewmen, smashed into rocks and turned turtle.

Forty-three railroad cars were hurled about inside the hull.

Eyewitnesses said the sickle-shaped harbor and its mile-long coast resembled a great naval disaster scene of the Pacific war. Wrecks of five ships and literally hundreds of small craft littered the beach.

The sand was dotted with bodies, many wearing life jackets which had failed to save their lives in the raging surf.

Smashed lifeboats, shattered timbers, oil and all the flotsam and jetsam of a sea disaster covered the beach.

In the town of Iwanai, 90 miles north of Hakodate, 32 persons died in a fire which destroyed 3,000 of the town's 4,500 houses in a few minutes. Forty-four persons were injured and others are missing, authorities said.

HAKODATE WAS without light or power. Emergency generators were put into operation to floodlight the disaster scene inside the breakwater, where the oily keel of the Toya Maru was visible above the still-churning water.

Japan's maritime safety force reported one other ocean freighter sunk, five grounded and one damaged in the storm. More than 1,100 small craft, mostly fishing boats were lost, beached or damaged.

Twenty-seven patrol boats, six landing vessels, three mine sweepers—all Japanese—combed Hakodate bay for bodies and possible survivors. They were assisted by U. S. air and naval units.

The U. S. Far East Command announced that 57 American military personnel were aboard the Toya Maru and that one was known to have survived.

Two other Americans listed as missing and presumably drowned were Thomas M. West, an agent for a domestic firm, and Dean Leeper, 32, of Ohio, student secretary for the Japan YMCA.

Gap In Prices Needs Probe, Burke Claims

CINCINNATI (AP)—Sen. Thomas A. Burke (D-Ohio) yesterday called for a congressional investigation of the "constantly increasing gap" between dipping farm prices and rising retail food costs.

Burke, campaigning for reelection, told his audience the Eisenhower Administration is pursuing a foreign policy of "brave words and small deeds" and accused Republicans of only one campaign issue this year, "Elect me to help Ike."

On retail food prices, Burke said: "The day the farmers' milk prices took their last major drop, the housewife was asked to pay another penny a quart on the retail market. We've got to find out why."

Burke said the country has "suffered badly" on foreign policy in the past 18 months.

"After all the slogans and brave words came the debacle of Geneva, loss of French Indochina and failure of the French to ratify EDC. Perhaps now is the time for that 'agonizing reappraisal' of which Mr. Dulles spoke so glibly a few months ago."

Secretary of State Dulles, before the French rejected the European Army plan, said the United States might be forced to an "agonizing reappraisal" of its aid to Europe if the French rejected EDC.

Roberts, accompanied by his wife, law partner and minister, walked into police headquarters about four hours after prosecutor George A. Brautigam of Dade County, Fla., had ordered him arrested.

Deputy sheriffs of Dade County said they would leave for Florida with Roberts immediately after the hearing.

Roberts' 6-year-old daughter, Judith Ann, was stolen from the home of her grandparents in Miami July 7. Her body was found a few hours later in a thicket on Biscayne Bay. She had been beaten and strangled.

A grand jury returned a secret indictment in Miami last Friday. Its contents remained a secret until Brautigam made them public here last evening.

The two-count indictment accused Roberts, "John Doe and or Mary Roe" of premeditated murder and "an attempt to perpetrate an abominable and detestable crime against nature."

Brautigam said, "we know there was at least one other person in this." He gave no details.

Ohioan Injures Wife With Auto

AUSTIN, Ind. (AP)—A Franklin, Ohio, man struck his wife with his auto, hit another car a few blocks farther down the street and then leaped from the car and slashed his throat with a knife last night.

State Trooper Frank Gray said the man, French Coomer, whose windpipe was partly severed, and his wife, Dora, 27, were taken to Schenck Memorial Hospital at Seymour in fair condition. Mrs. Coomer suffered a back injury.

Political Pot Starts Boiling More Furiously

'Crusade' Stopped Kefauver Declares; Nixon Claim a 'Lie'

By The Associated Press

The political pot continued to boil this week—perhaps a bit more furiously than before.

Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.) has told voters in Oregon, visited last week by President Eisenhower, that he believes "the great crusade of the Republicans has sputtered, backed up and stopped."

Taking the stump for Oregon Democrats in the Nov. 2 congressional election, Kefauver told a Klamath Falls audience, "if the day is to be saved, we've got to get back to the policies of Woodrow Wilson, Franklin D. Roosevelt and that great Republican senator, Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan."

Eisenhower visited Oregon last Thursday for the dedication of McNary Dam.

At the summer White House in Denver, an Eisenhower aide said yesterday the President's three-day swing through the far west drew "tremendously enthusiastic" responses from GOP leaders all over the country.

Murray Snyder, assistant press secretary, said Eisenhower was "quite happy about it, most gratified."

SNYDER DECLARED that party leaders were "particularly happy" about Eisenhower's most forceful pronouncement of the campaign—a political talk at the Hollywood Bowl in Los Angeles Thursday.

Vice President Nixon will begin his second campaign tour this week, in the Northeast, and his office yesterday announced plans for a third swing, Oct. 4-14. Nixon's third tour will take him to Ohio, Kentucky, Iowa, Colorado, California and Texas.

A statement by Nixon in Huron, S. D., a week ago was termed "an outright lie" yesterday by Stephen A. Mitchell, Democratic national chairman.

Mitchell jumped on Nixon for saying the Eisenhower administration has "kicked the Communists out of government, not by the hundreds, but by the thousands."

Asked on a radio-TV interview whether he was accusing Nixon of "an outright lie," Mitchell replied: "Yes; is that clear?"

Reports filed with the House of Representatives, it was disclosed over the weekend, show both the Republicans and the Democrats have been spending more than they took in this year.

Until Sept. 1, the reports showed, the Republicans took in $1,498,12 from all national sources and spent $1,614,895, while the Democratic National Committee reported contributions of $614,874 and expenditures of $711,91.

Locusts Slated To Face Battle

ROME (AP)—The Middle East's locusts are going to catch it in November. A task force of 50 field officers, 1,400 men, 200 jeeps and several light planes will attack the locust breeding grounds in the Arabian peninsula with poison baits and dusts.

Thirteen nations have pledged almost $14 million for this new effort by the Food and Agriculture Organization to wipe out the crop destroyers.

State Tightening Property Tax Law

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Board of Tax Appeals issued an order today designed to assure that all property owners will be given notice when the value of their real estate changes.

The order said the law is clear on when notices shall be given and that "it must be followed by the board of revision and by the county auditor." The order affects all real estate assessed or reassessed for the 1954 tax year.

Under the law, if the valuation of a class of property or an individual parcel is changed, the county auditor must notify the owner by mail or in person at least 30 days before tax bills are sent out. If the auditor reappraises all real estate in the county, he has to advise the completion of the reappraisal in a newspaper of general circulation before tax bills go out.

Gun and Relic Collectors From 8 States at Show Here

ONE OF 81 EXHIBITS at the Central Ohio Gun and Indian Relic collectors Association show, held at the Fairgrounds over the week end, was this display of antique and modern handguns entered by Paul Watters. Watters is shown above sighting down the barrel of a modern revolver from his collection.

Eighty-one exhibitors were here for the two-day show and sale of the Central Ohio Gun and Indian Relic Collectors Association held in the Merchants building on the Fairground Saturday and Sunday in celebration of the third anniversary of the founding of the association.

Gun and Indian relic collectors were there from eight states, including Ohio, Michigan, West Virginia, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Kentucky.

The gun collectors predominated and the number of guns and other articles changing hands during the two days show was unusually large.

In addition to guns and accessories and Indian relics, a large number of other articles, chiefly antiques, were offered for sale.

THE NUMBER of collectors and visitors Sunday greatly exceeded that of Saturday, although the Saturday show was nearly as large as the usual one-day show.

The 81 displays included some rare old guns as well as modern guns of all types. Many of them were high priced shotguns and rifles.

There were hundreds of rifles and shotguns and even more pistols.

Many residents of Washington C. H. and Fayette County were at the show and made trades and purchases.

As usual there was a great deal of trading, buying, and selling among the dealers, most of whom came for both days. Many of them remained here over night.

Four men took turns doing guard duty at night and slept in the building to make certain the valuable gun display was not molested by intruders.

During the two days, 19 new members were added to the list, bringing the total membership to about 300.

F. Paul Souther is president; Homer Bireley is vice president, and Coyt A. Stookey, secretary-treasurer of the association.

NEW YORK (AP)—The last light of an old year flickers out at sunset tonight, and millions of Jews gather to pray for greater spiritual strength in a troubled world.

It is the eve of Rosh Hashana, the "beginning of the year" of 5715 as calculated by the ancient lunar calendar and the first of Judaism's annual high holy days.

"Help us, God," the congregations will pray tonight, "to understand that justice and hate will not forever afflict the sons of men; that righteousness and mercy will triumph in the end."

Murder Witness Takes Own Life

FREDERICK, Md. (AP)—A woman under bond as a witness in a homicide case killed herself yesterday after she had called to her employer, "I think I'll shoot myself."

Sheriff Horace Alexander said Reva Wiles Clary, 38, was to have testified at the trial of William W. Bennett, shot herself in the head. She had testified last week before a grand jury which indicted Bennett on a charge of "assault with intent to murder" Charles H. Harmon.

The sheriff said the suicide occurred at the home of Albert Stollings near Lewistown, where she worked as a housekeeper.

Ground Swells Injure Bathers

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Ten-foot ground swells injured hundreds of bathers who flocked to the beaches yesterday to escape a temperature of 91 degrees.

Six persons required hospital treatment after being buffeted by the booming combers. Lifeguards rescued 80 persons at Los Angeles County beaches.

Lifeguard Capt. John F. Dillon said "literally hundreds of people were cut and bruised by the waves."

Lifeguards patrolled Venice and Playa Del Rey beaches in jeeps, warning parents to keep unattended youngsters out of the rampaging Pacific.

Italian Farmer Finds Hoss Thiet

TRENTO, Italy (AP)—Farmer Emenegildo Rebellato got out his old bicycle and went trailing when rustlers made off with his horse.

In three weeks and 300 miles of peddling, he got results: First he recovered the horse, 200 miles from home, in the barn of a man who said he bought it from gypsies for $50 and a mule.

Then Rebellato pushed on 100 miles farther and collared two gypsies. Police are holding them for horse theft.

Senate Probers Pin 2 Counts On Wisconsin Solon

Abuse of General And Contempt Are Condemned

WASHINGTON (AP)—A special Senate investigating committee recommended today that Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy "should be censured" by the Senate.

In a report prepared for the Senate, the six-member committee said McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican, had treated the Senate and one of its committees contemptuously. It said further that on another count, his abuse of Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker, "the senator from Wisconsin, Mr. McCarthy, should be censured."

As for three other broad charges considered in nine days of hearings, the committee said it feels they "do not, under all the evidence, justify a resolution of censure." But the group nevertheless was sharply critical of McCarthy's conduct.

The Senate itself will decide whether to vote to censure.

There was no immediate comment from McCarthy. A copy of the report was delivered to his office. But the senator's office staff said he had not seen the report so far as they knew, and that he was not expected to come to his office today.

ABOUT AN hour after the report was made public, McCarthy's attorney, Ed Williams, announced that McCarthy would make a "vigorous and lengthy fight" on the Senate floor against the committee recommendations.

Williams said "Of course, we think the report is wrong where it recommends censure."

Adoption of a resolution of censure would amount simply to a public rebuke of McCarthy and would not, of itself, remove any of his senatorial privileges.

The special committee's report ran to 68 printed pages, a total of about 40,000 words. Much of the text was devoted to a summary of the evidence.

In a concluding summary of recommendations, the committee said: "For the reasons and on the facts found in this report, the select committee recommends:

"1. That on the charges in the category of 'incidents of contempt of the Senate or a senatorial committee,' the senator from Wisconsin, Mr. McCarthy, should be censured."

"2. That the charges in the category of 'incidents of encouragement of United States employees to violate the law and their oaths of office or executive orders,' do not, under all the evidence, justify a resolution of censure."

"3. That the charges in the category of 'incidents involving receipt or use of confidential or classified or other confidential information from executive files,' do not, under all the evidence, justify a resolution of censure."

"4. THAT the charges in the category of 'incidents involving abuse of colleagues in the Senate,' except as to those dealt with in the first category, do not, under all the evidence, justify a resolution of censure."

"5. That on the charges in the category of 'incidents relating to Ralph W. Zwicker, a general officer of the Army of the United States,' the senator from Wisconsin, Mr. McCarthy, should be censured."

Further, the committee recommended that the Senate change its rules and ban one-man committee hearings except when the full committee, by majority vote, has directly authorized a single member to hold a hearing.

The group proposed also a rule forbidding disclosure of testimony taken in a closed session unless authorized by a majority vote of the committee.

McCarthy's abuse of Gen. Zwicker was in a closed, one-man hearing in New York last February. At the time, Zwicker was commander of Camp Kilmer. N. J. McCarthy called Zwicker before him as a witness in connection with an inquiry into the honorable discharge of an Army dentist who McCarthy described as a "Fifth Amendment Communist."

The resolution of censure against McCarthy was introduced by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt). Specific charges were filed by Flanders and Sens.

WHS Teachers At Convention

Vocational Courses Under Discussion

Two members of the Washington C. H. High School faculty today were fitting some of new ideas they picked up at a week end convention in Columbus into their teaching programs here.

Paul Pritchard, head of the auto mechanics department, and Dewey Huffman, head of vocational agriculture department, spend Friday and Saturday at the seventh annual convention of the Ohio Vocational Association. The association is made up of leaders in all fields of vocational education—agriculture, trades, industrial, home economics, commercial and similar courses.

One of the highlights of the general session Friday, the two Washington C. H. teachers said, was the panel discussion on the topic of "Teamwork Pays." Under the chairmanship of Ralph A. Howard, the four panelists, three men and a woman, placed emphasis on the advantages of coordinating the programs of all vocational courses in a school and of the importance of cooperation among them.

Saturday the convention was broken up into group meetings. Pritchard attended the one for teachers in the trade and industrial courses and Huffman took in the one for vocational agriculture instructors.

Leon Schingledacker, of the Department of Labor's Bureau of Apprenticeship, addressed the trade and industrial teachers' meeting on "My Two Years in Iran."

IN THE VOCATIONAL agriculture conference, one of the hottest arguments now going on was brought out into the open. In the form of a question, it was: "Should Vocational Agriculture Train for Part-time Farming and Related Vocations?"

Huffman said no conclusions were reached but, he added, many teachers expressed their views following the discussion by a panel made up of Chester Hutchison, associate dean, Ohio State University; D. R. Stanfield, assistant executive secretary of the Farm Bureau; Howard Nowels, a vo ag teacher; Donald Elliot, a farmer and Dallas Cornett, the moderator.

Training of part-time farmers and young men for related vocations, such as salesmen for things farmers have to buy or sell, is not now permitted under the Smith-Hughes vocational agriculture law.

As a sidelight on the convention—Paul Goodyear, who formerly had a job printing shop in Washington C. H., is now the printing teacher at Akron's Hower Vocational High School where the program for the convention was printed.

Goodyear, now a teacher at Hower High School, represents trades and industries, on the standing committee on public relations.

Fayette Scouters Attend Convention

Three Boy Scout executives from here were present at a regional meeting of Scouters held Friday and Saturday at the Deshler-Hilton Hotel in Columbus. A total of 42 districts, including the Fayette District were represented at the meeting.

Delegates from Ohio, West Virginia and Kentucky were guests of the Central Ohio Council, which serves Fayette County. The delegates from here were Dewey Sheidler, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moser, Glenn Allen and Robert Poppen.

Highlights of the convention included a banquet Friday night at which Governor Frank J. Lausche was the principal speaker, and a luncheon Saturday noon. Chief speaker Saturday was Commander Thomas Keene, director of civic relationships for the national Scout organization.

After the luncheon, the delegates attended the OSU-Indiana game.

Lions Lick Lightning; Boy Gets Clothes, Ring

Frank Sharp is a boy who earnestly hopes lightning doesn't strike twice in the same place. He's had enough.

A week ago Sunday, lightning hit the tenant farm house of Byron Rader, where Frank was visiting a brother. The house burned to the ground before Frank could rescue more than the clothes on his back.

Lost in the fire were the rest of Frank's clothes and his most valuable possession, his Jeffersonville High School class ring.

He worked hard for that ring. He had to work his way through all four years of high school and the cherished class ring required scrimping and saving all last summer.

Now that he was a senior and entitled to wear the ring, it was gone, with all his other belongings, in the fire.

Clothes were a problem, too. Pictures of the senior class were coming up and Frank had earned the right to appear in them. But he had nothing suitable to wear. Monday and Tuesday of last week, he had to stay out of school. He had no money to buy clothes.

Then, Tuesday afternoon, Marvin Smith told his mother, Mrs. Myron Smith, about Frank's plight. Mrs. Smith passed the word to Lester Allen, president of the Jeffersonville Lions Club.

Monday morning in Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Charles Ellis and infant daughter were released Sunday from Memorial Hospital to go to their home on Route 2.

The Nation Today

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (P) — What's an FBI report? How is it gathered? What goes into it? What's a raw file? Does the FBI evaluate its findings?

There's been heat, often more heat than light, in arguments over those questions as the FBI searches for subversive and security risks in government.

Say Jones works for a government agency in Baltimore. The FBI, with field offices all over the United States, gets a tip Jones is a Communist. It tells its Baltimore office to investigate.

Perhaps the information came from several FBI undercover agents in the party in Baltimore. They can't be called to testify at a hearing for Jones. So the FBI tries to get other information and witnesses that can be used.

Or perhaps the information comes from a man named Smith. The FBI goes to him at once. Does he know for a fact Jones is a Communist? No. He heard it from Kelly. The FBI checks Kelly. He doesn't know either. Schwartz told him.

Schwartz is checked. He never told Kelly that Jones was a Communist. He had heard—he can't remember where—that Jones was at a party meeting June 1.

The FBI checks further, finds Jones couldn't have been at the meeting. He was in Florida on vacation June 8. The FBI Florida office found out that.

Since the FBI had picked up no other information linking Jones with communism, all along the line of its investigation, it drops the case. But suppose the opposite had happened.

Suppose Schwartz, although unable to recall who told him, had stumbled on accurate information and the FBI finds Jones was at a party meeting. The investigation widens.

Besides the FBI's Baltimore agents now digging deeper into Jones' life, the help of FBI agents in half a dozen states may be required to investigate him through people who formerly knew him or worked with him.

In addition to checking on Jones, the FBI checks on informants to see if there is any motive, besides wanting to help the government, for what they say. A rumor given to the FBI might be based on a grudge.

In some cases the information will come from its own undercover men in the party. In others, the information will be from people who have proven to be reliable—or unreliable—in the past.

The agents put every scrap of information in the reports which they send to the FBI headquarters in Washington. There a special section examines them. They divide their reports into two parts: administrative and investigative.

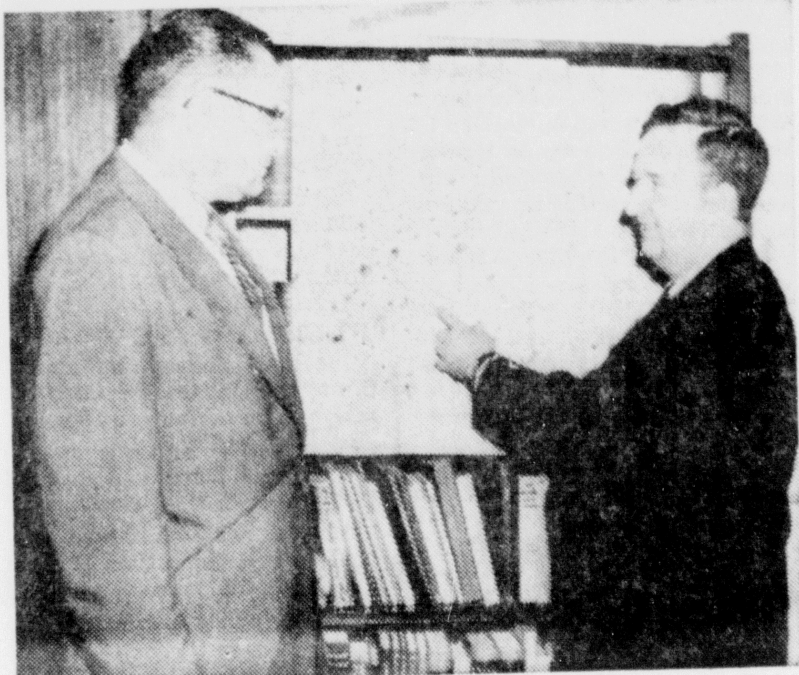

These two parts together are called the raw file. The administrative section is locked up in FBI files and is never disclosed outside the FBI. The investigative report is sent to the government agency which employs Jones.

That administrative section contains information on investigative techniques, information on why the agents went to the various informants and people who wouldn't make statements at all, the names of confidential informants who never want their identity revealed outside the FBI, and the unconfirmed rumors and gossip which the agents have picked up but which have no direct connection with the case.

When an FBI agent gets information from an individual he tries to get the statement in writing, and signed. If the individual makes a written statement but doesn't want his name disclosed, the statement goes into the investigative report but his name is kept secret in the administrative report in FBI files.

In the investigative report which goes to Jones' agency, the FBI notes that this particular information came from an individual who

O'Neill And Blackburn To Visit Here Wednesday

Attorney General, C. William O'Neill and Congressional Candidate Leo Blackburn, who visit here Wednesday, are shown planning their "campaign caravan" and personal report to the people which is touring the sixth Ohio congressional district Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, this week. They plan to visit every one of the nine counties and as many towns as possible to personally meet the voters.

Attorney General C. William O'Neill and Leo Blackburn, Republican congressional candidate in this sixth Ohio district of which Fayette is one of nine counties, will be in Washington C. H. at noon Wednesday.

They have started today on a "campaign caravan" on the three day tour during which they hope to meet a great many of the voters of the district.

According to their schedule they will arrive in Washington C. H. about the noon hour Wednesday and will be here for lunch.

O'Neill and Blackburn will talk and answer questions at their many stops throughout the district and announce they will be happy to meet all their many friends.

There announced schedule is as follows:
Monday: Beginning at Milford, has been reliable in the past, appears reliable from a check made on him, or has proven to be unreliable.

The FBI, when it turns its investigative report over to Jones' agency, does not evaluate it by saying whether the FBI thinks Jones is a Communist or not. It draws no conclusions and makes no recommendations.

Any conclusions are left up to Jones' agency.

Hindu Women Near Divorce Right

NEW DELHI (P) — A revolutionary new divorce bill, giving Hindu women for the first time in their 5,000 years of recorded history the right to demand a divorce, needs only presidential signature to become Indian law.

The bill, passed by parliament, raises the marriageable age for boys to 21 and for girls to 18. Present age limits are 14 for girls and 18 for boys.

The measure will enable a woman to demand a divorce on grounds of infidelity, cruelty, her husband's insanity or because he is suffering from an incurable disease.

BY W. A. SMITH
(City School Superintendent)
Sixty city and county teachers appeared at the opening session of the "Workshop in Reading" extension class last Thursday. Dr. Huelsman of Miami University is the instructor. The class will meet on Thursdays from 7:15 to 9:15 P. M. for the next 15 weeks. Teachers still desiring to register may do so next Thursday evening.

Those present were enthusiastic over the outline of the work to be covered as explained by Dr. Huelsman. Many of the individual problems that exist in the classroom will be discussed and solutions sought. Certainly it is expected that all who take the course will be better teachers as a result.

A review of the subjects to be discussed reveals the broad scope of the program: The Psychology of Reading; the Developmental Tasks of Learning to Read; the Characteristics of a Sound Program; the Initial Stages in Learning to Read; Learning to Read in Grades Two through Eight; Learning to Read at the Secondary Level; Reading with Understanding; Learning to Read Critically; Recreational Reading; Reading in the Subject Matter Fields; Individualizing Instruction; Helping Retarded Readers and Evaluating Instruction.

The use of the tachistoscope as an instrument to help with reading problems will be demonstrated, as well as other devices which have been developed in recent years.

Representatives from city and county schools in Greene, Clinton, Fayette, Highland and Ross counties will meet in the high school auditorium here at 3:30 P. M. on Wednesday of this week. Walton Bliss, executive secretary of the Ohio Education Association, will discuss the proposed school legislation to be sponsored by the OEA during the next session of the General Assembly.

The representatives attending this meeting will carry the program back to their associates in their respective counties for discussion and questions. Supplementary proposals may be suggested by the representatives before the OEA convention is held on November 21-23 in Columbus.

Tight Parker Says He's Sorry

OTTAWA — Ed Morris fumed a while when he found his parked car so hemmed in, front and rear, by two other automobiles that he couldn't ease out. Then he wrote this note and attached it to the windshield of the closest: "Thanks. I took a trolley bus."

Returning to his car hours later, he found another note wrapped around a 25-cent coin. It said: "This will pay your trolley fare home and back. Sorry."

Second String Gives Strength To Cleveland

Pennant-Winner's Powerful Finish Is Credit To Substitutes

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland's Indians snapped New York's five-year hold on the American League pennant and then broke a 27-year-old record for winning games because they finally rounded up enough good second line pitchers and some bench strength.

That's the opinion of Manager Al Lopez, who was plenty tired of finishing in second place.

Reviewing the season today, Lopez generously praised such long-time Tribe pitching stars as Bob Lemon (23-7), Early Wynn (23-11), and Mike Garcia (19-8) and "such hitters as Bobby Avila, Larry Doby and Al Rosen.

But he bore down in discussing his reserves. They were the difference between 92 victories last year and the record 111 this year, the difference between winning and finishing 8½ games back.

The added pitching came from veteran Bob Feller, two castoffs from the Detroit Tigers and two rookies. Feller won 13 and lost 3. Art Houtteman, traded by Detroit in 1953, hit a comeback with a 15-7 record. Hal Newhouser, sore-armed and aging, was released unconditionally by Detroit and showed up at the Indians' training camp this spring. He truck around to post a 7-2 mark.

Don Mossi and Ray Narleski were the prize rookies, working mainly in relief. Mossi, up from Tulsa, won 6 and lost 1. Narleski, up from Indianapolis, won 3 and lost 3.

This year the Tribe hung relentlessly to first place despite injuries that benched Rosen from third base, George Strickland from short and Avila from second for long stretches.

Moving in were Al Smith, second year youngster who filled in at third and then won a starting spot in left field; Sam Dente, who worked last season at Indianapolis, and filled in when Strickland was hurt and infielder Hank Majeski.

Vic Wertz, obtained from Baltimore on a trade, never solved the first base situation, but he did scare opposing pitchers. Lopez sent big Luke Easter back to the minors at the beginning of the year and tried to find a fill-in at first. He admits he never did get a man who could both field and hit, but he finally settled on Wertz, a converted outfielder.

"Until then we had only two long ball hitters, Doby and Rosen," Lopez explained. "By adding Wertz we kept additional pressure on the pitchers and it paid off." Doby banged out 32 homers, Rosen 24 and Wertz 15.

Possibly the Tribe would have wrapped it up long before Labor Day except for Rosen's broken right index finger. As the most valuable player in 1953, Rosen had 43 homers. His average dropped from .336 to .300.

Cleveland's batting strength was not much different this season from earlier ones and left something to be desired, although Avila led the league with .341 and Doby topped it in home runs and runs batted in, with 126.

Possibly the flashiest addition was Smith. A speedy base runner, Smith drew more than his share of walks. He played only 47 games with Cleveland in 1953 and had only a .240 batting average.

Smith got into the lineup at Boston April 29 when the Indians were in sixth place and has been around ever since, with a .281 average, 11 homers and 50 runs batted in.

Lopez contends this team has no more poise and is no more relentless than his earlier ones, although its efforts have paid off much more handsomely.

The Indians, settling down after a shaky start, took over first place by sweeping a doubleheader at Philadelphia May 16 and they have been there ever since, except for four days early in June.

Milledgeville Beats Good Hope

Playoff to Break Deadlock Sunday

The twice-postponed baseball game between Good Hope and Milledgeville was played at last on Sunday—and the host team battered Good Hope visitors unmercifully 12 to 1.

A victory would have given Good Hope final title to second place in the four-team league, but Sunday's result leaves them tied with Milledgeville for second place honors. So, there will be a playoff next Sunday.

The fifth inning saw Good Hope's hopes dashed. Milledgeville scored eight times in the single inning to clinch the game.

The fifth inning was a bad one for Good Hope in another way, too. Pitcher Bob Dawes was forced out of the game by illness in the top half of the inning and Good Hope Coach Tom Smalley doubts that he'll be able to play next Sunday.

Hendricks, the winning pitcher, struck out seven and walked four. In his four innings on the mound, Dawes had struck out four and walked three.

Errors were the real cause of the Good Hope team's collapse. Eight errors were made by the Good Hope men, but Milledgeville fielded without a flaw.

Major Leagues Hike Attendance

NEW YORK (AP)—For the first time in recent years, attendance at major league baseball games showed a gain in 1954 with 15,937,767 fans paying their way into the 16 ball parks.

A year ago, when there was a slight decrease over 1952, the turnout was 14,383,797.

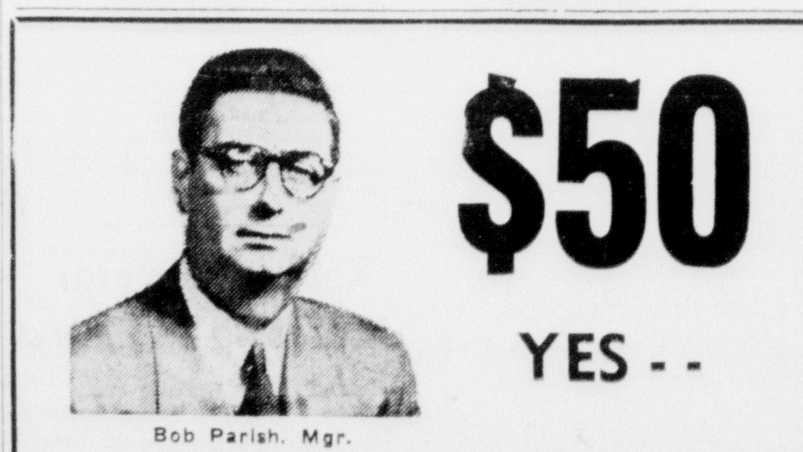

Topped by a record game of 2-131,388 at Milwaukee, the National League drew 8,001,924 as compared to 7,419,721 last year.

The American League attendance jumped nearly a million with the Baltimore Orioles accounting for nearly three-fourths of the boost.

Browns Dead, First Game Seems To Say

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Coach Paul Brown hasn't been fooling. The Cleveland Browns just aren't what they used to be.

When the Browns, perennial eastern division champion of the National Football League, lost three of five pre-season exhibition games, everyone said Paul was "playing it cute." He's trying out his new men. Wait until the season starts, the Browns will be the same old Browns, the experts said.

But yesterday, Brown proved he hasn't been kidding. His proud Browns were humbled in the opening NFL game by the powerful Philadelphia Eagles. And the 28-10 score doesn't nearly indicate the superiority of the Eagles.

Brown, asked about his team, said, "I have loads of problems that the club looked today. It will take a long time to straighten things out before we can get rolling."

The Eagles, pre-season choice to challenge the Browns for eastern honors, displayed all the power, finesse, and versatility of a champion. Philadelphia gained a total of 397 yards—182 passing and 215 running, while the Browns netted 47 yards on the ground and 95 in the air. The hard-charging Philadelphia defense kept the peerless Otto Graham with his nose in the ground most of the day. Graham completed only nine of 23 attempts.

It looks like Brown was right. The retirement of some of his longtime stars has stripped the Cleveland team of its power and precision.

IS THERE ONE BEST TIME TO MAKE PREARRANGEMENT?

YES, when all the family is around to take part in this important decision. Foresight has prompted many people to make funeral arrangements in advance of need. Then one can calmly and sanely provide for the inevitable. It's the sensible thing to do and leaves no questions unanswered.

Notre Dame's Challengers May Kill Each Other Off

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Notre Dame, apparently headed for new glories under young Terry Brennan, may just stand aside and watch other top contenders for national football honors kill off themselves.

With the season only two weeks old, four teams picked to challenge the Irish for the coveted No. 1 role — Texas, Illinois, Michigan State and Georgia Tech — already have been beaten.

Another, Oklahoma, has had a tight squeeze, having to score twice in the fading minutes to beat Texas as Christian 21-16, and the Sooners may not be as fortunate Oct. 9 against Texas at Dallas.

At least one other recognized power, and possibly more, will fall this week-end when action increases with an imposing interschool schedule featuring a clash of two Bowl giants — Maryland and UCLA.

Maryland, last year's mythical rated the best on the Pacific Coast, tangle Friday night at Los Angeles in a game which is bound to throw new light on the national picture.

Wisconsin is at Michigan State, Tennessee at Duke and Mississippi at Villanova in other games involving teams which have caught the early fancy of those looking for a bandwagon.

Notre Dame, meanwhile, appears a solid bet to survive its own rugged schedule and go through to the honors for which the team was picked in the pre-season Associated Press poll.

For those who might have been skeptical that the 26-year-old Brennan could step into the shoes of Knute Rockne and Frank Leahy, the Fighting Irish had the answer Saturday in a 21-0 triumph over a big, strong Texas team which had been called the best from the Southwest in years.

The Irish entertain an old state rival, Purdue, this week and are expected to duplicate approximately last year's 37-7 score. Texas was good enough to be picked No. 4 in the pre-season AP poll behind the Irish, Oklahoma and Maryland. Oklahoma is idle this week.

Illinois, the No. 5 team, was stunned by Penn State, 14-12. Michigan Rose Bowl champions, fell before class of Dixie and rated No. 7 before the season began, lost to aroused Florida, 13-12.

Tech was rated fifth in the more recent poll based on the first week's games. Illinois was No. 6 and Michigan State No. 7 in this lineup, which was headed by Oklahoma.

The Sooners had a tremendous scare in the game with TCU and

Lustre Added This Week To Grid Program

COLUMBUS (AP)—Invading teams from California, Michigan, Oklahoma, Indiana, Pennsylvania and Illinois add lustre next weekend to Ohio's collegiate football picture. Buckeye squads travel to Missouri, Wisconsin and West Virginia.

The big one is in the big Buckeye horseshoe as Ohio State is host to the California Bears, with perhaps 78,000 fans on hand. The Bucks whipped Indiana 28-0 Saturday while California toyed with San Jose State 45-0. In their opener the Bears were 27-13 victims of top-ranked Oklahoma.

Here's the schedule:
Friday night: Western Reserve at Kent State, Wittenberg at Marietta.

Saturday afternoon: California at Ohio State, Toledo at Ohio U., Mount Union at Denison, Oberlin at Otterbein, Wooster at Kenyon, Akron at Ohio Wesleyan, John Carroll at Dayton, Central State at Lincoln, Kalamazoo at Defiance, Alma at Bluffton, Northern Michigan at Findlay.

Saturday night: Muskingum at Heidelberg, Hiram at Capital, Ashland at Ohio Northern, Miami at Marquette, Tulsa at Cincinnati, Manchester at Wilmington, Baldwin Wallace at Morris Harvey, Waynesburg at Bowling Green.

Sunday night: Great Lakes at Xavier.

Fayette County Is Now TB Cattle Accredited For Three Year Period

Fayette County is now accredited by the state, for proper tests having been made for tubercular cattle. This credit covers a three year period beginning July 1 this year.

The tests made covered approximately 25,000 cattle as required by the state. The satisfactory feature of the report received shows that less than one half of one percent were reactors.

Official records on the total number of cattle tested are as yet not available, but the 25,000 unofficially mentioned, is considered very close to the number of animals receiving the desired tests.

THIS WORK started here in 1952, after it had been urged that the county had not been having more than a limited number of spot tests for many years. The result, just now announced, shows the cattle here in excellent condition and officials and owners in the county are happy over the situation.

The announcement from Director A. L. Sorenson of the Ohio Department of Agriculture, came in an official letter to the county and also to County Agricultural Agent W. W. Montgomery who met with the county commissioners at the Court House Monday morning to fully acquaint that board with what the state report meant, since the TB cattle testing has been going on for more than two years to gain official recognition here as an area of remedification. Fayette County was first attested as a TB free area in 1927, but tests since that time were not sufficiently wide to cover requirements of being accredited as is the case now.

THE TESTING of all the cattle in the county during and since 1952 was made possible through the willingness and cooperation of the Fayette County Board of Commissioners who spent approximately $4,000 to get the work accomplished in order to give the county its present official rating.

County Agent Montgomery states that much praise is due the commissioners for their aid and also to the cooperating veterinarians who put much time and effort in the work in this county. Fine and very helpful cooperation also was received from the State Department of Animal Industry, it was said by the county commissioners and County Agent Montgomery.

A direct quotation from Memorandum of Agreement, copies of which were received here, which makes Fayette County accredited for a period of three years, reads as follows:

"The Ohio Department of Agriculture does hereby petition the Chief, Animal Disease Eradication Branch, Agricultural Research Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, to officially declare Fayette County as a Modified Accredited Area for a period of three years from date of July 1, 1954, provided that during that time the percentage of tuberculosis of cattle does not exceed one-half (.5) of one percent."

The Ohio Department of Agriculture agrees to prevent the movement of cattle into Fayette County except in accordance with the provisions of the uniformed methods and rules for TB free accredited herds of cattle.

LOCAL AND out-of-county veterinarians who made the work possible, included the following: Doctors McCoy & McCoy; Dr. Donald Mossbarger; Dr. Richard Junk; Dr. Robert Little; Dr. James Jones — (Mt. Sterling); Dr. Robert Morgan — (Mechanicsburg); Dr. L. M. Tarbill — (New Holland); Dr. N. D. Abbott — Washington C. H.).

In the beginning of the testing period, each veterinarian was assigned one or two townships in which to work. In this way, the plan was very systematically carried out.

Senate Probers

Fulbright (D-Ark) and Morse (Ind-Ore).

Altogether, 40-odd charges, some of them overlapping, were lodged.

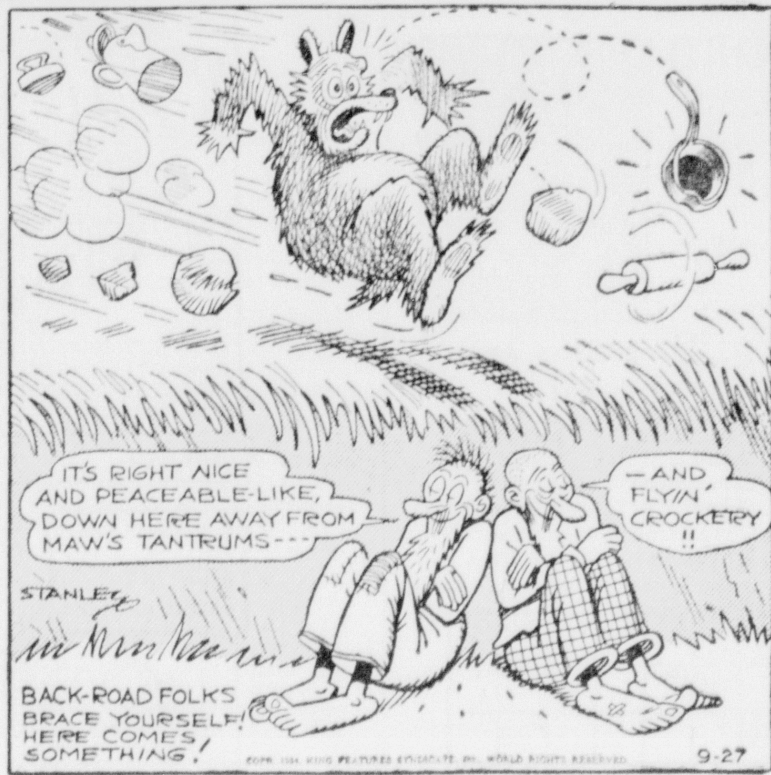

THE SPECIAL committee appointed to consider them was made up of three Republicans and three Democrats. Sen. Watkins (R-Utah) was named chairman and Sen. Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.), vice chairman. Other members were Sens. Case of South Dakota and Carlson of Kansas, Republicans, and Sen. Stennis of Mississippi and Ervin of North Carolina, Democrats.

The committee reduced the numerous charges to five general categories which it regarded as representative of the accusations.

The committee found McCarthy guilty as charged in Category One, that he was contemptuous of the Senate and of the privileges and elections subcommittee which in 1952 studied his financial operations.

The committee's conclusion of the initial category was blunt:

"It is, therefore, the conclusion of the select committee that the conduct of the junior senator from Wisconsin toward the subcommittee on privileges and elections, towards its members, including the statement concerning Senator Hendrickson acting as a member of the subcommittee, and toward the Senate, was contemptuous and denunciatory, without reason or justification, and was obstructive to legislative processes."

"For this conduct, it is our recommendation that he be censured by the Senate."

THE COMMITTEE devoted 14 pages of its report to a detailed discussion of the Zwicker incident and ended this section with these words:

"The select committee concludes that the conduct of Sen. McCarthy toward Gen. Zwicker was reprehensible and that for this conduct he should be censured."

The report said "in the opinion of this select committee, the conduct of Sen. McCarthy toward Gen. Zwicker was not proper."

The committee said McCarthy knew when he called Zwicker before his subcommittee last February that the general had been ordered to give an honorable discharge to Maj. Irving Peress.

The committee added that McCarthy also knew that Zwicker had been advised that a court martial of Peress would not be successful.

The committee denounced as "improper" McCarthy's stand in the dispute over his appeal to government employees to hand him information, regardless of whether it was classified as secret, and accused him of "a high degree of irresponsibility" in handling one such document. The report said:

"The select committee feels compelled to conclude that the conduct of Sen. McCarthy in inviting federal employees to supply him with information, without expressly excluding therefrom classified documents, tends to create a disruption of the orderly and constitutional functioning of the executive and legislative branches of the government, which tends to bring both into disrepute."

"Such conduct cannot be condoned and is deemed improper."

THE COMMITTEE said, however, it was not recommending censure because it preferred "to give Sen. McCarthy the benefit of whatever doubts and uncertainties may have confused the issue in the past" and because McCarthy is chairman of the Senate Investigations Subcommittee.

But the report recommended that Senate leaders seek some means for reform in Senate investigating procedures.

On the broad charge involving abuses of other senators, the committee said this did not of itself justify a recommendation of censure. However, the specific conduct involving Senator Hendrickson was made a part of the general finding that McCarthy was in contempt of the Senate and should be censured.

The Hendrickson count grew out of McCarthy's description of Hendrickson as "a living miracle without brains or guts." This comment was made in January, 1953, after Hendrickson had signed the report of the Senate Privileges and Elections Subcommittee which investigated McCarthy's financial affairs under a resolution of former Senator Benton (D-Conn.).

Other incidents of alleged abuse cited in the charges were McCarthy's description of Senator Flanders as "senile" and McCarthy's subsequent comment as to Flanders: "I think they should get a man with a net and take him to a good quiet place."

The report said of this:

"THE REMARKS of Senator McCarthy concerning Senator Flanders were highly improper."

"The committee finds, however, that they were induced by Senator Flanders' conduct in respect to Senator McCarthy in the Senate caucus room, and in delivering provocative speeches concerning Senator McCarthy."

"For these reasons, the committee concludes the remarks with reference to Senator Slanders do not constitute a basis for censure."

Man Is Held For Chicken Theft

Had 35 Stolen Fowls In His Possession

One alleged chicken thief was rounded up and another escaped about 1:30 A. M. Sunday when State Highway Patrolman R. R. Sheline came upon the pair camped at the roadside park near Compton Creek, on U. S. route 22.

Arrested was Donald Lambert, 54, of near Wellston, in whose truck was found 35 chickens which had been stolen from the W. E. Davis farm on the White pike earlier in the night.

Lambert's companion, in an automobile, escaped and search for him is now being made.

Sheline, upon finding the truck with the chickens, suspected theft of the fowls and notified Sheriff Orland Hays, who with Deputy Don Thompson, started out to locate the owner of the chickens. They found they belonged to Davis who filed the affidavit against Lambert.

The charge was filed in municipal court and a hearing was held before Judge R. L. Brubaker Monday.

The two men are suspected of other chicken stealing in Fayette and other counties. A full investigation is underway.

Winegardner Gives Outline Of Platform

Reed M. Winegardner's Republican opponent for the state Senate, Lowell Fess of Yellow Springs, told a joint "Meet the Candidates" meeting of the Ross County Farm Bureau and Pomona Grange that they would be electing a good man if they elect Winegardner but, he added, they would elect an even better one if they elect him next November.

Fess went on to explain that he and Winegardner, a Democrat, are old friends from college days at Ohio Northern University.

Winegardner took the same amiable attitude toward Fess in this bit of by-play and then outlined his position.

He declared he was for complete destruction of the Communist party, highways with a minimum width of 24 feet, increasing old age pensions $10 to $75 per month, making truckers pay a fair share of highway costs, money for school buildings and increased teachers' salaries, an Agricultural Experiment Station for Southern Ohio and the moving of Ohio State University's agriculture school from the center of Columbus.

Winegardner said he expected the campaign to warm up next month and to reach fever heat just before the election Nov. 2.

Contracts Awarded For Four New Trucks

City Manager James F. Parkinson has awarded contracts for four new trucks for the city.

Contract for a two-ton dump truck was awarded to the Brandenburg Motor Sales, for $1,629.65, and an old truck.

Brandenburg also was awarded the contract for a two-ton truck at $1,998.70 and the old truck.

Carroll Halliday, Inc., was awarded contracts for two trucks, at his bid of $789 for a half-ton pickup truck and the old truck, and $1,343 for a one-ton truck for the sewage disposal department and take in the old truck.

The new trucks have been badly needed for some time and will place the various departments in much better shape to look after city service.
